April Housing & Austin Affordable Housing Corporation

April Housing is a multi-family developer with over 20 years of low income housing tax credit industry experience. They have developed over 8,500 units across 55 developments. April Housing supports the development process through transactions, asset management, compliance, preservation, capital markets, and public relations.

An affiliate of the Austin Affordable Housing Corporation (AAHC) will be the sole member of the general partner and the landowner under a ground lease structure. AAHC is a nonprofit entity affiliated with the Housing Authority of the City of Austin. AAHC assists in the development of affordable housing through the private activity bond and tax credit programs by providing tax exemption and participation in partnerships.
