BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

The City Council finds that:

B. When flourishing, the Renaissance Market provides an active, vibrant use in a space that many students walk through enroute to and from their university classes.

D. The City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department assesses a vendor license fee of $200 per year and provides 50% waivers for students and veterans, full waivers for individuals under 17 or over 60 years of age, and a three-month full waiver for artisans experiencing homelessness.

F. Together with increased marketing, security services, and specified market days each week, setting the fee to zero dollars for this Fiscal Year will enable the City to begin to rebuild what has been one of the longest continuously running open-air arts and crafts markets in the nation.

PART 2. Council amends Exhibit A to Ordinance No. 20220817-005 (City of Austin Fee and Fine Ordinance for Fiscal Year 2022-2023) to set the fee at zero dollars for this Fiscal Year attached to this ordinance as Attachment 1.

PART 3. This ordinance takes effect on _____, 2022.
