Additional Backup Information:

Approval of Amendment No. 5 will provide high-quality infant and toddler childcare, parent training, and monitoring of teen parent attendance and performance in school for clients, for the term beginning on October 1, 2025, to September 30, 2026. The Austin Housing Department increased this agreement's funding from Fiscal Year 2024-2025. The City's 2025-2029 Consolidated Plan notes the need for childcare assistance for low-income families. Parents participating in the Community Development Block Grant Teen Parent Child Care Program must be low-income teenagers who are attending middle school or high school and are residents of Austin, Texas. The Austin Housing Department has designated the Austin Independent School District as a subrecipient for the federal Community Development Block Grant Teen Parent Services Program contract for Fiscal Year 2025-2026 based upon their experience of more than 18 years. The federal contract will be administrated by the Austin Public Health Department.
