RESOLUTION NO.

2 WHEREAS, Austin's small businesses, independent businesses, and legacy
3 businesses are a crucial part of the City's economic, social, and cultural fabric; and

4 WHEREAS, Austin has served as a culinary incubator, launchpad, and
5 home for award-winning independent food vendors, including James Beard Award
6 winners, Food and Wine Global Tastemaker Award winners, and Michelin Award
7 winners, including Joe's Bakery and Coffee Shop, Nixta Taqueria, and KG BBQ; 8 and

9 WHEREAS, Austin's culinary culture is a crucial part of the City's appeal
10 as a cultural, business, and tourism destination, with Food and Wine magazine
11 writing in 2024 that Austinites and visitors alike "can find a world-class meal at a 12 barbecue truck as easily as at a hallowed fine-dining institution"; and

13 WHEREAS, the City holds itself to a high standard for community 14 engagement and participation; and

15 WHEREAS, the State of Texas approved SB 1008 in May 2025, setting a 16 permitting fee limitation for municipalities that mandates permitting fees charged
17 to food service establishments cannot exceed the amount that the State charges;

18 NOW, THEREFORE,

19 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

20 The City Manager is directed to explore revising maintain the City's fee
21 schedule to calculate set the permit fee for food service establishments as the lesser 22 of the amount calculated under the gross volume calculation method or the risk
23 calculation method below for the applicable permit as provided for in the recently
24 adopted Fiscal Year 2025-2026 adopted fees, or the amount calculated for the 25 applicable permit under the risk-based calculation methodology as used for those

26 ~~fees during the 2024-25 fiscal year, and establish that a food establishment permit~~ 27 ~~applicant will pay the permit fee of the lesser of the risk-based fee model or the~~ 28 ~~annual gross volume food sales model as calculated by the City.~~ This resolution 29 does not limit future changes starting in Fiscal Year 2026-2027.

30 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

31 The City Manager is further directed to conduct a stakeholder engagement 32 program with small, independent, and legacy businesses to understand and 33 consider the impact of fee increases, including any effects on economic 34 sustainability and viability of local business, and take a collaborative approach to 35 developing a revised fee schedule.

36 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

37 The City Manager is further directed to bring the proposed revised fee 38 schedules and outcome of the stakeholder involvement program to Council for its 39 consideration at the September 25, 2025 meeting.
