Additional Backup Information:

The International Building Code provides minimum requirements to safeguard the public health, safety and general welfare of the occupants of new and existing commercial and multi-family buildings and structures. The International Existing Building Code covers repair, alteration, addition, and change of occupancy for existing buildings and historic buildings while achieving appropriate levels of safety without requiring full compliance with the new construction requirements contained in the other codes. The proposed ordinance reduces local amendments, clarifies existing amendments, and provides more flexibility to the design community. The Development Services Department obtained stakeholder feedback through the Public Input platform.
