

Helping solve homelessness among older adults in Central Texas.

Serving our community for 42 Years +

- Founded in 1982 to support the family's role as caregiver for frail elders
- Soon expanded services to prevent abuse, neglect and financial exploitation of elders & adults with disabilities
- Today, FEC serves more than 16,000 clients in ATX

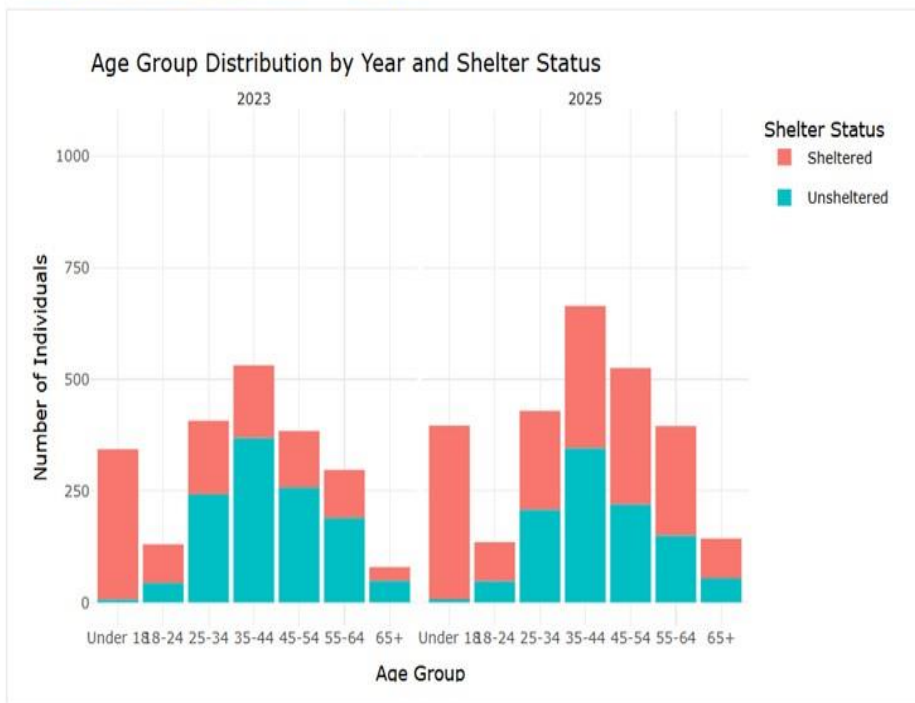

Our mission: We provide services that promote dignity and stability for older adults and people with disabilities.

Age Group Distribution

2023 2025 Combined Years Change Over Time (Sheltered)
Change Over Time (Unsheltered) Raw Data

Helping solve homelessness for older adults in Central Texas...

Unhoused people over the age of 55:

Age 55 + 2023

- Unsheltered: 237
- Sheltered: 139
- Total: 376

Age 55 + 2025

- Unsheltered: 203
- Sheltered: 335
- Total: 538

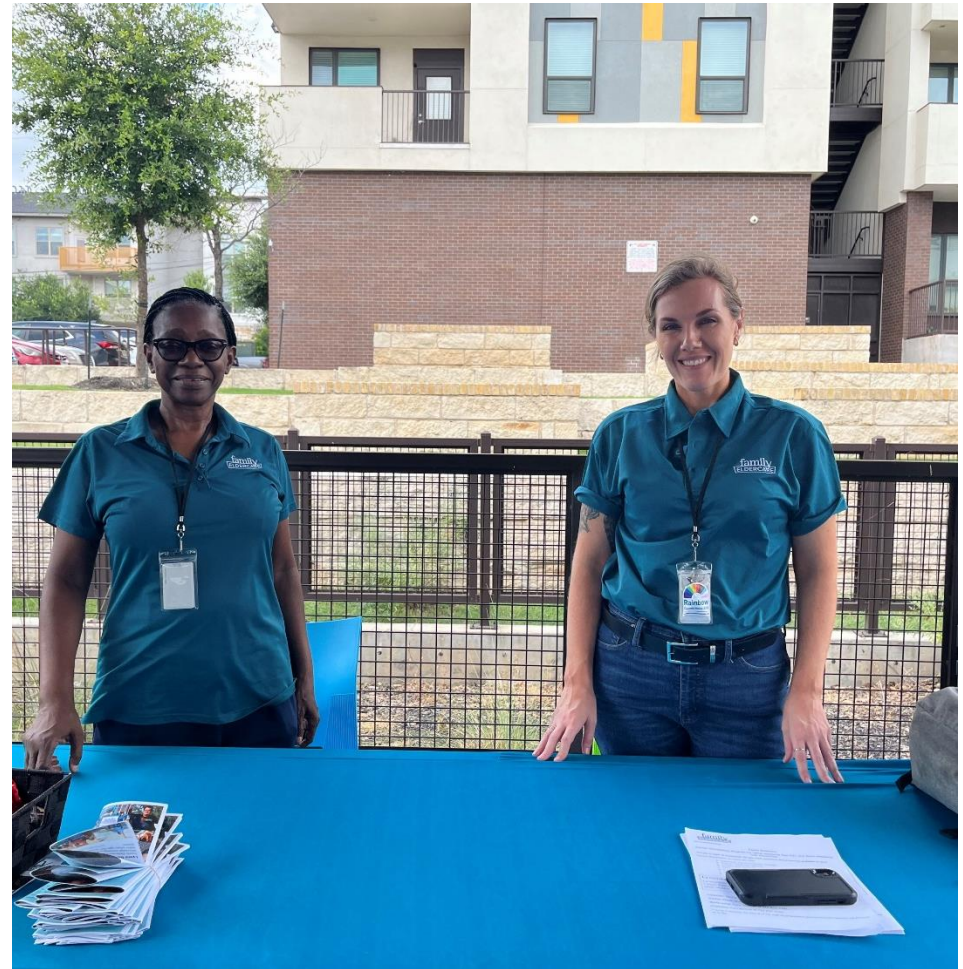

These figures indicate that, even though the number of unsheltered older adults has decreased, the total number of unhoused individuals over the age of 55 has increased by 70%.

This data comes from the Austin/Travis County PIT (Point in time) Demographics 2023-2025
