

Displacement StoryMap Contents

Storymap Demo - HPC June 2nd

This project utilizes the StoryMap application (Developed by ESRI) to combine maps, with qualitative and visual storytelling tools to highlight displacement trends in Austin and the City's response through the Displacement Prevention Division . This standalone site will be linked from the Housing Department's webpage and promoted through community outreach.

Section 1: The Story of Displacement in Austin

1. Introduction
2. Infographic: Defining Displacement
3. Mapping Displacement
 - a. Before/After Maps: Where could a teacher afford to live in 2000 vs today
 - b. Before/After: What was the predominant race/ethnicity by census tract in 2000 vs today
 - c. Before/After Maps: What was the predominant industry of employment by census tract in 2000 vs today

Section 2: How the Displacement Prevention Division is Responding

1. Infographic: Displacement Prevention strategies
2. Brief Descriptions of Programs/Projects including:
 - a. I Belong in Austin
 - b. Home Repair Programs
 - c. Community Initiated Solutions
 - d. Displacement Navigators
 - e. Displacement Risk Area Analysis
3. Slideshow: Maps showing the anonymized locations of the thousands of households receiving Displacement Prevention services
4. Highlighting city-funded affordable housing properties

Section 3. Link to additional research

Section 4. Link to Displacement Prevention resources

StoryMap Example Screenshots

