Council Committee, Boards and Commission Action:

January 11, 2022- Recommended by the Airport Advisory Commission on an 8-0 vote with Commissioners Coon and Price absent.

Additional Backup Information:

These contracts will provide specialized airport financial skills on an as needed basis. These contractors will provide specialized airport financial and consulting services for the Aviation Department (Aviation) which are not available from Aviation city staff. Additionally, Aviation requires multiple contractors due to the specialized expertise of each firm.

These services will include contract airport rates and charges financial consulting, airport financial planning, airport financial and strategic planning for capital improvement program financial management, annual airport consultant report on consolidated rental car facility and customer facility charges and additional consulting such as assisting in developing and implementing benchmarks and best practices, providing research and information on the airport, airline, rental car, and airport parking industries, preparation of cost/benefit analysis of previous and/or future projects or operations and competitive assessments, evaluate feasibility of proposed programs and projects, provide real estate/property feasibility studies as it relates to airport-related development, and provide various economic impact analysis and studies.

These contracts are replacing an existing contract which expires February 22, 2022. The requested authority is based on the historical spend and department estimates. The recommended contractors are the current providers for these services. There will be substantial growth at the Airport this year which will significantly increase the need for these services.

An evaluation team with expertise in this area evaluated the offers and scored Ricondo Associates, Inc., Unison Consulting, Inc., LeighFisher Inc., and Frasca Associates, LLC, as the best to provide these services based on experience and qualifications of proposers and key individuals, including references; understanding of the scope and magnitude of the work to be accomplished as demonstrated by the RFQS response and demonstrated experience of the firm providing aviation services similar to the tasks listed within the scope of work

If Aviation is unable to secure a contract, City will not have the expertise or ability within Aviation staff to complete the type of tasks required for airport financial maintenance.

Strategic Outcome(s):

Mobility, Government that Works for All.
