Council Committee, Boards and Commission Action:

January 11, 2023 -Recommended by the Airport Advisory Commission on a 9-0-2 vote, with Commissioner Madole and Commissioner Saulmon absent.

Additional Backup Information:

The contract will provide advertising, marketing, communications, and community engagement to the public regarding the Airport Expansion and Development Program and other airport improvement projects and will include the initial market research necessary to determine a baseline of travelers and community sentiments about the Austin-Bergstrom International Airport (AUS) and future plans for capital improvements. The contractor will be responsible for increasing passenger and community understanding of ongoing construction and airport improvements through strategy development, market research, creative, graphics and website support, social media, and digital content creation. The contractor will work with the Department of Aviation (Aviation) to create and execute the airport's community engagement and public outreach plan and outreach deliverables to support an overall strategic approach to timely and transparent community engagement. The contractor will assist the Aviation's Public Information and Marketing team to identify and gauge target audiences, adjust, and evolve campaign goals strategy and messaging.

The message and vision must be delivered with compelling, timely and relevant updates while effectively communicating anticipated disruptions to the passenger experience. Additionally, this contract will help to ensure airport-adjacent neighbors and the Austin and Central Texas community are aware of changes and improvements coming to AUS.

If this contract is not approved then Aviation will not be able to effectively provide the required advertising, marketing, communications, community engagement and public outreach to the public regarding airport improvements and construction impacts.

An evaluation team with expertise in this area evaluated the offers and scored Eis Design Inc. as the best to provide these services based on qualifications requirements, communications and marketing support professional experience, community engagement and public outreach professional experience, business organization and history, personnel qualifications, and experience.

Strategic Outcome(s):

Mobility, Government that Works for All.
